Support for people impacted by the bushfires in Gippsland and NE Victoria

On 12 January The Victorian Government announced the establishment of a case support program

A $14.4 million investment in the Victorian Bushfires Case Support Program is available in Gippsland and North East Victoria and statewide to assist the displaced.

Support coordinators will be a single point of contact for those who need it, working with local residents to link them directly with vital support

- Help to access information
- Assistance with completing applications for grants and other assistance
- Provide psychosocial support
- Financial counselling
- Register for recovery programs such as clean up grants

The Victorian Government in partnership with Commonwealth-State Disaster Recovery Funding Arrangements have funded this program.

Culturally appropriate services will be offered by Aboriginal Community Controlled Agencies to support Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Victorians needing support.
